

109. The Power of Philanthropy (cont.)

Suite 102, Wheeling. Parking available at 10th Street Garage or the surface parking lot across from the Market Plaza/Stone Center.

Angie Zambito-Hill is executive director of WLU Foundation and a Certified Fund Raising Executive. Employed as a professional fundraiser for non-profits and higher education for over 11 years, she also serves on the boards of the Chambers YMCA and is a member of the Oglebay Institute Museum Committee.

110. "Faith Alone, Grace Alone" Martin Luther and the Reformation

Wednesday, November 1 – 1:30 PM

In 1517, German monk Martin Luther posted "Ninety-five Theses on the Power of Indulgences," seen as the start of the Protestant Reformation. His challenge to the Roman Catholic Church took incredible courage. Issues of faith, conscience, and the individual's relationship to authority resonate as much today as they did 500 years ago and this program exams how one person's act of defiance changed the world.

Sandy Czernek has been an instructor of history at WLU since 2004. She previously taught at West Virginia Northern Community College for several years. She earned both her bachelor's degree in secondary education and master's degree in history at West Virginia University. Her special interests are the Civil War, Appalachian history, and baseball.

111. Your Next Chapter!

Thursday, November 2 – 10 AM

Former media personality turned author, speaker and entrepreneur Sherrie McCutcheon Dunlevy is living a life by design and you can too! Join her as she explores ways you can make the next chapter of your life the BEST Chapter of your life! Don't let the calendar define what you can or can't do or the opinions of others tell you what you should or shouldn't do. It's time to design the life you were meant to live!

Former News Anchor for WTOV 9, Sherrie McCutcheon Dunlevy, is the former host of The BROADcast on AM 1600 WKX and a former emcee of Jamboree USA and Jamboree in the Hills. A business owner, author and speaker, she is from Martins Ferry and resides in Bethlehem.

112. How to Spot Fake News

Tuesday, November 7 – 1 PM

If you follow the news, especially if you follow politics, you have heard of fake news. Fake news is nothing new but the internet allows it to spread more rapidly than ever and it has changed what many think, and even what governments do. Come learn what exactly fake news is, how it is spread, and the tools you can use to identify fake news. If you have ever read a news story and wondered whether or not it was true this class is for you.

Brian Fitzpatrick is an instructor of political science at West Liberty University. He earned a bachelor's in political science form the University of North Carolina at Asheville, a master's in international politics form City University of London, a master's in political science from West Virginia University, and is currently completing a PhD in political science from West Virginia University.

113. Wild Edibles

Thursday, November 9 – 10 AM
Center, Oglebay Resort

Nature provides many wild edibles in the form of fruits, seeds and leaves. Join us at the Schrader Environmental Education Center as we identify the different types and uses of flowers, shrubs and trees that grow along the nature trails.

Note - Location: Schrader Environmental Education Center, Oglebay Resort.

This program is led by Molly Check, director of the Schrader Center, who has taught about wild edibles at nature centers in Pennsylvania, Minnesota and Connecticut. From picking blueberries as a young girl to steeping pine needle tea up North, she has sampled her fair share of nature's bounty. Molly will lead the way on the trails, picking samples for interested participants to try, and sharing her experiences with the wild edibles of our area. You may be surprised at how many wild edibles you have growing in your own backyard and neighborhood!

114. Hoods and Buttons: Ordinary Clothing in the Middle Ages

Thursday, November 16 – 9 AM

We have all seen the clothing of Knights and Princesses in the Middle Ages, but what did the common folk wear? This is a hands-on course, first discussing the archeology of the London Hood and how clothing was made in the Middle Ages, and then a bit of practice in making Medieval wool buttons.

Dr. Dominique Hoche is the Medievalist in the Humanities Department at WLU, where she specializes in early British Literature, Christine de Pizan, and medieval visual theory.

115. Psych Out: What's in a Brain?

Thursday, November 16 – 1 PM

Do our brains define who we are? In this offering we will explore the basic anatomy of the brain. We will discuss the fundamental structures and processes within the human brain. You will also have the opportunity to participate in a hands-on sheep brain dissection (all materials will be provided).

Tifani Fletcher received her Ph.D. in psychology from East Tennessee State University. She is currently an assistant professor of psychology at WLU where she created the Hilltopper Experimental Lab in Psychology, and is currently working with students on a "Psych Out" program which offers interactive psychology experiences to a wide variety of audiences.

For more information:

Savannah Moore at 304.217.2800 or savannah.moore@westliberty.edu

Ron Witt at 304.336.8844 or witron@westliberty.edu

Community University - WLU Highlands Center

Entrance is located across from the Marquee Cinemas
355 Wharton Circle, Suite 200
Triadelphia, WV 26059
westliberty.edu/community-university

Community University

Fall 2017

For Life Long Learning

WEST LIBERTY UNIVERSITY

Community University at West Liberty
Fall Term 2017 Registration Form

Participant's Name: _____

Guest/Spouse Name _____
(if applicable)

Address _____

City, State, Zip _____

Telephone _____

E-mail _____

Please write your name(s) and circle the number(s) below that correspond to the number of the course(s) that you wish to attend.

Participant's Name _____

101 102 103 104 105 106 107 108

109 110 111 112 113 114 115

Guest/Spouse Name _____
(if applicable)

101 102 103 104 105 106 107 108

109 110 111 112 113 114 115

$25 per person unless otherwise stated.

Sorry, no refunds.

Total Costs

$25 Tuition x _____ = $ _____
(number of participants)

Total Payable to WLU $ _____

Please clip and return registration form along with a check (payable to West Liberty University) to:

West Liberty University
208 University Drive
College Union Box 122
West Liberty, WV 26074

Offering stimulating opportunities to people age 55 and older.

Enroll in Community University and join like-minded adults interested in the joy of learning! Community University is an organization with volunteer presenters and programs shaped by request. Courses and lectures are conveniently scheduled during the day at WLU Highlands Center, unless otherwise noted. There are no entrance requirements, grades or tests. Enrollment is easy! Fill out the attached form and return it with your tuition of $25 entitling you to enroll in as many courses or lectures as you wish during the fall term. Please note: there may be an additional cost for some courses. Most courses are about 90-120 minutes in length.

101. Movies with Art

8 Sessions: Starting Wednesday, September 27
Every Wednesday through November 15 at 9:30 AM

"Rom-Com" – Apparently, "Art's Favorites" were either too gloomy or forced people to think. Therefore, several asked for something that wouldn't require thinking or lead to depression. This term, then, we will wallow in the sentimentality of Romantic Comedies.

Art Barbeau is Professor Emeritus at WLU where he taught history and anthropology for 43 years. This will be his eleventh time presenting for the Community University and part way through this fall term, he will hit the 120th program mark!

102. Gardening 101 – Things to Do in the Fall Thursday, September 28 – 1 PM

This is a little class for gardeners or would-be gardeners. It will include topics such as planting fall bulbs, planting trees, taking care of dahlias and irises, fall garden soil preparation, the pros and cons of winter cover crops, winterizing gardening tools as well as the small engines found on lawn and garden equipment. Participants will learn to take and submit soil samples and to interpret the soil test results.

Earl Nicodemus is retired after serving as a higher education faculty member for over 40 years. He holds a BS degree and a number of graduate hours in Agriculture from Ohio State University and is the author of Weelunk's 12-month series Betty's Garden Diary.

103. Historic Wheeling

Session 1: Tuesday, October 3 – 10 AM

Enjoy this one-hour look at historic moments and folklore of Wheeling that includes flooding, bridges, railroads, and little known facts.

Rich Knoblich is author of Talking 'bout the Relatives an original tall tale collection inspired by visits to his fictional family homestead. His rustic humor brought home eight ribbons from the WV Liar's Contest and he has served as judge for many other contests. His creative tall tale writings have been published in national and regional magazines and he has entertained audiences throughout the Mid-Atlantic region.

104. Financial Survival for Retirement

2 Sessions: Tuesday, October 3 & 10 – 2 PM
Session 1 October 3 – 2-4 PM

Basic Tax Reduction Strategies; Protect Life's Savings from the Threat of Health Care Catastrophe; and The Four Legal Documents Every Retiree Must Have.

Joshua Maher, NSSA, began his career as a financial advisor with one of the largest corporate financial planning firms in the industry. He has since teamed up with Three Rivers Wealth Management Group to provide clients with a more comprehensive, relationship-based financial planning process that integrates services critical financial success.

105. Historic Oglebay

Session 2: Tuesday, October 10 – 10 AM

This one-hour look at Oglebay — the man and the park — shows how its past has evolved into today's modern system.

Presented by: Rich Knoblich

106. Financial Survival for Retirement

Session 2 October 10 – 2-4 PM

Missing Estate Plan: Handling IRA's, 401(k)s, and other Retirement Accounts; and Protecting Your Life's Savings from Investment Mistakes.

Presented by: Joshua Maher, NSSA

107. Historic Ghost Tales

Session 3: Tuesday, October 17 – 10 AM

Originally developed as a tourist walking tour this PowerPoint show details some of the historic "paranormal" phenomenon in lower downtown Wheeling from 12th - 16th streets.

Presented by: Rich Knoblich

108. The Capitol Theatre: "Behind the Curtain" tour

Thursday, October 19 – 10 AM

Take a tour behind the scenes of one of West Virginia's largest and oldest historical theatres. Hear the story of the theatre's return to life after being forced to close under public safety violations and see one of the theatre's safety features that can be seen from space.

Note - Location: Class meets at the Capitol Theatre, 1015 Main St., Wheeling.

Frank O'Brien, executive director of the Wheeling/Ohio County Convention & Visitors Bureau also known as Visit Wheeling, WV. The CVB is the owner of the historic Capitol Theatre and has an agreement with the Wheeling Sports and Entertainment Authority to operate the theatre. He has led the CVB for more than 11 years and before that was an anchor/reporter at WTRF TV-7 for 20 years.

109. The Power of Philanthropy

Tuesday, October 24 – 10 AM

This class includes a brief overview of the history of philanthropy, explore the impact philanthropy and the nonprofit sector has on our community and our country, and discuss ways that we all can be philanthropists.

Note - Location: Class meets at the new WLU Downtown Center, where the WLU Foundation offices are located in the former Horne's Department Store building, 1100 Main Street,