109 Baseball Strategies, Bo McConnaughy
Two Sessions: Thursday, April 9 and 23, 10-11:30 p.m.
Bo McConnaughy, who coached WLU baseball from 1983-2012, will share his coaching strategies. You will learn how to watch a game from a player’s and fan’s perspective as well as a discussion of: signs from coaches, pitch location, cut offs, relays and more. How do over 200 people get from London to San Francisco in just hours? We’ll join their adventure.

Presenter’s Background: Bo Rotherth came to the Wheeling area in 1967 to start news-talk format in radio broadcasting. He worked in local radio for 18 years. Dale served as the Baltimore Orioles’ advanced pilot. Examines the advance flight and ground instructor certificates. He taught ground school at several local colleges and schools in adult education programs.

110 The World of Wine, Aron Massey
Four Sessions: Wednesday, April 15, 22, 29 and May 6, 1-3 p.m.
This is the fourth offering of “The World of Wine” at the Community University. This course introduces the topic of wine through a geographic perspective. Examine what wine is, how grapes are grown, winemaking techniques and grape growing regions across the globe. New regions and wines will be covered during these sessions. If attendees want to take part in optional wine tasting during each class, they will need to bring a wine glass and pay a small fee of $5 per week to offset the cost of the wine.

Presenter’s Background: Aron Massey is a geography professor at West Liberty University. He has taught several college level courses on wine at Kent State University. Aron has worked professionally at a winery and continues as a consultant for multiple aspects of the wine industry.

111 Tour of the OVAC Sports Museum, WesBanco Arena, 2-14th St., Wheeling, Doug Huff
Thursday, April 16, 10-12 p.m.
Inside WesBanco Arena may be one of the best local sports museums anywhere. The arena has been home to the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Hall of Fame display since 2004. Learn how the museum project was started in 2005 and how it has evolved over the years. The museum features 150 cases of materials from 85 high schools, past and present, plus OVAC athletes who competed in college, the pros, Olympics, etc.Learn how the museum project was started in 2005 and how it has evolved over the years. The museum features 150 cases of materials from 85 high schools, past and present, plus OVAC athletes who competed in college, the pros, Olympics, etc.

Presenter’s Background: Aron Massey is a geography professor at West Liberty University. He has taught several college level courses on wine at Kent State University. Aron has worked professionally at a winery and continues as a consultant for multiple aspects of the wine industry.

112 Adventures in Transportation, Part 5, Dale Rotherth
Thursday, April 16, 1-3 p.m.
This is a continuation of a course that shows photographs of a variety of unusual transportation happenings. Part five starts with updated information on the Delta Queen and other new information on transportation.

Presenter’s Background: Except for the years that he was playing pro ball, Bo McConnaughy has been associated with WLU athletics in some fashion since he arrived on the campus in the fall of 1966 as a college freshman. He was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in 1970 and spent four years in pro ball before returning to the Ohio Valley and WLU.

113 Tour of Eagle Manufacturing Co., 2400 Charles St., Wheeling
Monday, April 20, 1:30-3:30 p.m.
Directions: From Route 2 North, turn left onto 22nd Street. At Charles Street, turn left. Eagle Manufacturing is on the left.
Learn the history of Eagle Manufacturing Company, a family owned business established in 1894. See the manufacturing process of Safety Cans, Safety Cabinets, Secondary Spill Containment Products and Poly Drums. Material Handling and Containment Products. Eagle designs and manufactures all of its own products. Eagle is certified to the ISO-9001:2008 Quality System and is the most respected brand name for consistent quality and value. All of Eagle’s products are “Made in USA.”

Presenter’s Background: Gary Rider taught school for 20 years as a sports columnist for state newspapers, Doug Huff has contributed to Sports illustrated, USA Today, New York Times, Street & Smith’s, ESPN, Parade. The Associated Press and other national sports publications. He was inducted into the OVAC Hall of Fame and was only the second sports journalist inducted into the National High School Sports Hall of Fame. He serves as the OVAC Sports Museum. He was inducted into the OVAC Hall of Fame and was only the second sports journalist inducted into the National High School Sports Hall of Fame. He serves as the OVAC Sports Museum.

114 Marvelous Adventures in Transportation, Part 5, Dale Rotherth
Thursday, April 23, 1-3 p.m.
An overview of the 600 plus stories collected on men and women who have served in the military from the American Revolution to today. Some feature humorous moments and ones that were under fire from the Ohio Valley. There are also stories with profiles show the sacrifices, dangers, and courage of those who served in the military.

Presenter’s Background: John Egan McAteer, a West Virginia native, is a retired US Foreign Service Officer who was twice assigned to the Yemen Arab Republic during his 30 year career in the Department of State. John resides in Wheeling and is a member of the Rotary Club of Wheeling.

115 Tour of the Good Zoo at Oglebay: The Good Zoo and How it Grew, Vickie Markey-Tekely
Thursday, May 2, 10-11:30 a.m.
A look at how a unique Arab country has stumbled into chaos in the past three decades.

Presenter’s Background: John Egan McAteer, a West Virginia native, is a retired US Foreign Service Officer who was twice assigned to the Yemen Arab Republic during his 30 year career in the Department of State. John resides in Wheeling and is a member of the Rotary Club of Wheeling.

116 Yemen: From Fairytale to Failed State, Dr. John Egan McAteer
Thursday, May 7, 10-11:30 a.m.
A look at how a unique Arab country has stumbled into chaos in the past three decades.

Presenter’s Background: John Egan McAteer, a West Virginia native, is a retired US Foreign Service Officer who was twice assigned to the Yemen Arab Republic during his 30 year career in the Department of State. John resides in Wheeling and is a member of the Rotary Club of Wheeling.

117 Tour of the Marx Toy Museum, 915 Second St., Moundsville
Thursday, May 7, 1-3:30 p.m.
Contemporary Toys and How they got to the US. The museum displays complete quality toys, just as children would remember them on Christmas day - in an authentic 1950 décor - which coincides with the golden age of Marx toys.

Questions?
Please contact Jeff Knierim, Vice President for Community Engagement, or contact, Dr. Tom Michaud, Dean of the School of Professional Studies, at 304.336.8301, e-mail: jknierim@westliberty.edu or contact, Dr. Tom Michaud, Dean of the School of Professional Studies, at 304.217.2800 Ext. 42, e-mail: tmichaud@westliberty.edu

Visit West Liberty University for Life Long Learning
Triadelphia, WV 26059

Community University at West Liberty
WLU Highands Center
(entrance is located across from the Marquee Cinemas)
355 Wharton Circle, Suite 200
Tradelphia, WV 26059
westliberty.edu/community-university

Community University at West Liberty
WLU Highands Center
(entrance is located across from the Marquee Cinemas)
355 Wharton Circle, Suite 200
Tradelphia, WV 26059
westliberty.edu/community-university

From left to right: Sherry Rosenberg, Fred Brunner and Sandy Schafer at the Community University, WLU Highlands Center

Spring 2015
This spring, enroll in the Community University at WLU and take part in a classroom of like-minded adults interested in the sheer joy of learning! Community University offers enthusiastic volunteer presenters and courses shaped by YOUR interests! Classes are conveniently scheduled during the day at the WLU Highlands Center (except courses 108, 113, 115 and 117). There are no entrance requirements, grades or tests — just a love of learning!

Courses & Instructors:

_101_ Movies with Art, Art Barbeau, Ph.D.

Seven Sessions: Wednesday, March 4, April 1, 8, 15, 22, and May 9, 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Chick flicks.... As described as films aimed at women, these are usually light romantic comedies. Thus, there are usually no high speed chases or dramatic crashes, few physical fights and a usually light romantic comedies. Art invites you to listen to different chapters of the genre as well as others that he feels fit the theme. He is suggesting that some viewers might want to bring Kleenex.

Presenter’s Background: Art Barbeau is Professor Emeritus at West Liberty University where he taught history and anthropology for 43 years. This is the sixth film course that Jon featuring "Sideswiped," recounting the events leading up to his resignation, his own guilt, and how a powerful member of Congress (House Ways and Means) is accused of corruption. The book contains interviews between Jon and his wife of 38 years, Pam. It explores their feelings regarding the investigation and the challenges they faced during this time in his life.

_102_ Pictorial View of Past and Present U.S. Air Power, Jon Letzkus

Two sessions: Thursday, March 19 and April 2, 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Learn about military aviation through an impressive display of vintage and modern U.S. Air Force aircraft and installations. This is an all new presentation from Jon featuring WW II aircraft on March 19 and modern day aircraft on April 2.

Presenter’s Background: Jon W. Letzkus is a graduate of the Air Force Academy and serves as President of Firsthand Farewell, a new drive directly to the library parking lot adjacent to the river. Learn the history of the ADBC. Captured by the Japanese following their conquest of the Philippines in 1942, thousands of American military personnel died while imprisoned under horrific conditions. The ADBC Museum, located in the Brooke County Library, is the official national archive, designated as such by the ADBC, of artifacts and documentation created by the survivors and their descendants.

Presenters’ Backgrounds:

RICHARD LIZZA, Professor Emeritus of History at WLU, taught American history and political science at West Liberty and West Virginia Northern Community College. James Brockman, Director of the ADBC Museum, serves as collector, curator, collaborator and student intern from local universities at the museum.