A bit about the artist

- Bio
- Mom of 2 with a love of theater, music, and learning. Hoping to thrive throughout my time at WLU and learn as much as possible in my practicum/internships.
- Statement
- Chaos ensues in every attempt to create. I find the joy in attempting not to harness it but simply to show an appreciation for it in the form of art.

I feel pure wild unadulterated rage

ficking over every inch of my body

I feel like a fivewire

a whip about to crack

the full moon is coming
