COMMUNITY EDUCATION MINOR

15 hours

The Community Education minor is for students that are ready to be change makers, innovators, leaders, creative thinkers, and non-traditional educators in their chosen fields in either education, the nonprofit sector, for profit organizations, or entrepreneurial enterprises.

The course work is driven by hands-on, experiential, progressive forward-thinking practical experiences and appropriate for students in any career fields that fosters innovation, creativity, non-traditional approaches, and forward thinking ideas. These fields could include (but are not limited to) business, (elementary/secondary) education, nursing, psychology, science, social work, speech pathology, etc. Students in comprehensive area programs (art, music, and physical education) would also be able to add the minor. Students will be equipped with a minor that is innovative, creative, non-traditional, and forward thinking, by being prepared with basics of community and social change and innovation, as well as problem/ project-based service-learning opportunities.
