- VI. New Business
- VII. Open Discussion
  - A. Trevor: likes the duck idea for elementary school for halloween
  - B. Zach: Any suggestions for bylaw amendments for appointing senate; must meet all senator requirements and attend two meetings as well as present themselves to senate; Second option they must be approved by membership committee
    - 1. Dylan: the second one makes it easier to avoid president to appoint his friends

2. Natasha: Due to situations in the past I think the second option would be good
  3. Andrew: Wants consistency with appointment
  4. Motion to approve: Dylan
    - (1) 2nd: Natasha
- C. Zach: Someone is running for state senate and wants to come up to campus; if so only if they reach out to us we will give them a platform to speak to students
1. Trevor: maybe monitor it, promote voting
  2. Dylan: it is good it will promote SGA as well
  3. Zach: maybe hosting a debate
  4. Natasha: I like that so it will be two candidates stating both of their sides, won't show favoritism

VIII. First Constituent Time

- A. Funding Packet presentation: Dallas and Ashton from BPE: mainly funding is for philanthropy, funding a child with cancer, want to hold an event for her on campus most of decorations about $200 want to buy reusable decor, also posters and paint for philanthropy events; as well as other things for new members
- B. Funding packet: Mackenzie from Biology Club: not just for biology majors, a central unifying time and events for people who are interested in science requesting food items for during meetings since it is during lunch time

IX. Second Open Discussion

- A. Natasha: Serious trash problem since they cut down cleaning staff this year
  1. Zach: Heard that there's only a few maintenance people, shortage of workers are hiring
  2. Trevor: Last year there were students that helped maybe advertise more

X. Second Constituent Time

XI. Third Open Discussion

- A. Motion to move into executive session: Natasha
2nd: Andrew

XII. Executive Session

- A. Voted on funding packets

XIII. Motion to Adjourn: Natasha
